

DOUBLE

OF THE INTERLOCUTOR CONCERNING

Mr. Peter Hadden.

Jan 8th
1723

HE Question being put, Is the Corruption and Concussion alleged, as springs of the bad Fame, sufficiently proven to Debar Mr. Hadden, from being admitted an Ordinary Lord of the Session, or not? Sevenordi-nary Lords, Voted sufficiently proven; and Six Ordinary Lords, with the Duke of Athole, and Marquis of Tweeddale, Voted not. Then my Lord President declared his Opinion thus, That the Corruption and Concussion were sufficiently proven.

And it was thereupon agreed, That Mr. Hadden should be allowed to finish what remains of the Trial, as to his Knowledge of the Law, under the Protestations taken against the extraordinary Lords, this Sederunt and formerly.

The Lords Ordinary and Extraordinary, Their Votes,

proven,
Lords, POLTON,
DUN, NEWHAL, ROTSTON, KIMMERGHAM, COUPER, GRANGE,

not proven,
Arniston,
Pollock,
Panca island,
Ormiston,
Cullen,
Forlen,

The Lord President declared, Sufficiently proven.

M. of Tweeddale voted,
Not sufficiently proven.

EDINBURGH, Printed by J. Ross 1723.

a many just to and untruth much 2nd now that he can mount a bench

Thos. Spence